Lefkada cruise

Lefkada cruise is one of our most popular tours. We will take you to see the most beautiful beaches of Lefkada and to swim in its memorable blue waters. Beaches of Lefkada are sometimes not accessible by land roads because of its steep rocky cliffs that stand above the sea, that's why yacht charters are the best way to explore Lefkada's sea "secrets".

Kefalonia's must swims cruise

The best of Kefalonia! Stay impressed with dazzling white pebbles in the hidden paradise of the North-West coast. Make a splash at some famous spots, explore the most beautiful Cephalonian village – Assos or just enjoy the colourful scenery from a lonely fish tavern in Agia Kiriaki bay. If you still haven't heard about the magnificent blueness of Cephalonia, you will probably become the one who talks about it, so don't miss to take a swim.

Kefalonia is an island in Greece that is known for its dramatic coastline and stunning beaches. The island has something to offer for everyone, whether you're looking for a quiet sandy beach to relax on or a more adventurous spot for swimming, sunbathing, and exploring.

Atokos - Kastos - Kalamos cruise

It's time to meet Greece as it was a long time before mass tourism. Visiting Atokos – Kastos – Kalamos islands is the best way to do that. Out of thousands of islands in Greece, of which 227 are inhabited, dozens are private, but only on a few, it is allowed to sail around and moor, like on the paradise of Atokos, only 4 miles from Ithaca. Calm, protected bays, literally crystal clear waters and amazing colours, one church, one house and... goats.

Atokos is a great introduction to the beautiful natural scenery that comes with islands of Kalamos and Kastos and a channel between them. Green, white, blue, caves, bays alternate all the way. It's time to meet Greece as it was a long time before mass tourism, islands without cars, perfectly clean, quiet, tasty food, sea and sun, thick pine trees, unusual wild landscapes. A tough decision where to anchor for a swim stop. No wonder it was a favourite getaway for Onassis and Jacky O!

Meganisi - Scorpios - Lefkada cruise

Take it all of your stay, Meganisi – Scorpios – Lefkada cruise. Ithaca's north bays, our first swim stop, are famous not only for exceptional waters and nature, but also for the unusual view of many surrounding islands and the two of them we will also visit – Meganisi & Lefkada. Sea caves are important attractions in Meganisi and the famous Papanikolis Cave is a must see, since it's got its fame because it was used as a hiding place for one of the most successful Greek submarines – "Papanikolis", during World War II.

Meganisi picturesque villages are known for the all-day siesta & coasts lined up with cafeterias and great fish taverns, which would be a shame not to check out. On our way to the next bay we'll pass many small islands Skorpios, Skorpidi, Sparti Lefkadas, Madouri, Thilia, and maybe even anchor somewhere. Even though it's not possible to land on Skorpios Island, we can pass by close to see this legendary Ionian island. Once a private paradise of a shipping magnate, Aristotle Onassis.

Zakynthos cruise

The best of Zakynthos. We have all heard about Shipwreck bay and Blue caves of course... Truly one of the most intriguing and beautiful bays in the Ionian sea, and accordingly crowded (to be honest). Luckily Zakynthos has many more natural beauties to offer around the North part, and finally a lunch break in touristic village Agios Nikolaos. On the way back Kefalonia also offers some amazing secluded bays. It's not a competition, just saying...
